Our first book will be Braiding Sweetgrass by Robin Wall Kimmerer. Braiding Sweetgrass is a wonderful meditation on the natural world through the eyes of a plant biologist who is also a Native American and sees nature through both lenses. The book can be bought through the Amazon. It is also available at the public library and other bookstores. For further information, contact Mary Doak or Jim Cockey Mark your calendars now to participate in this fun activity! We will meet on the video platform, Google Meet. Who's the lucky duck?

Everyone likes helping others and the environment.
