NEW TEN COMMANDMENTS by Rabbi Bernard Baskin (when he was 102 yrs old)

New commandment #1:

You shall not overpopulate the Earth.

New commandment #2:

You shall share your natural resources with others.

New commandment #3:

You shall not pollute or despoil the Earth.

New commandment #4:

Preserve the family to keep it secure.

New commandment #5:

You shall not engage in wholesale murder.

New commandment #6:

You shall have respect for the elderly.

New commandment #7:

You shall not pervert the truth.

New commandment #8:

Strive to make your life worthwhile.

New commandment #9:

Learn to live together as members of the human race.

“Rabbi,” I point out, “there are only nine commandments here. Where’s the Tenth?”

“I’ve done that just to keep you guessing.”

Laetare Sunday: March 10th, the 4th Sunday of Lent is Laetare Sunday meaning "Rejoice!". You may remember Rev. Margaret wearing pink vestments on this Sunday during Lent last year. We will be rejoicing with the Dove Pointe Choir in attendance! Look for more info next week.

St. Alban's Labyrinth: On Good Friday, we will be having a labyrinth walk after our noon service. If you are interested in learning more about the labyrinth, please contact Rev. Margaret. She is a trained facilitator with Veriditas Inc., and would love to show you how the labyrinth can be a great tool in your spirituality

Drivers needed: we are looking for drivers to bring people to church. If you are available and willing to offer this ministry, please contact Rev. Margaret.
