MESSAGES FROM

Rev. Margaret

COP29 Nov 11-29 has begun and my role as a delegate is described here:

What does it mean to represent the Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church at the United Nations (UN) as a Presiding Bishop's delegate to COP29? Each of us has been authorized by the Presiding Bishop to exercise this role during this year's 29th session of the United Nations Conference of Parties of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (COP29) because of the confidence and trust that has been placed in us. Whether we are attending virtually or in person, we are representing the Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church – and General Convention – by our presence, our words and our actions. Representing the Presiding Bishop is an honor and privilege, and with the role comes great responsibility. As delegates, we • Act as ambassadors. We embody our Presiding Bishop, our Church (known at the UN by its corporate name, the “Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the USA”) and the wider body of Christ in its diversity, wonderment, simplicity, and complexity. While we are well-respected, loved and highly experienced people in our own right, we will be perceived at the United Nations as delegate representatives of the Presiding Bishop and The Episcopal Church.
